Belated Christmas Card

Photoshop, 2017

I couldn't find a card design that had the sizing, color, and conveyed the belated message that I was looking for. So, I designed my own Christmas card to send to family and friends.

Youtube Thumbnail

Photoshop, 2020

I've been creating instructional videos for my students for years, but with the distance learning format due to covid lockdowns I finally started posting them to Youtube.

This thumbnail was created to help students navigate to the appropriate video.

Wedding Photography Fixes

Photoshop, 2015

A friend's son got married, but their wedding photographer did not get some of the family shots that she wanted.

I took the existing photos and edited them to contain the specific members of the wedding party that she wanted.
